Dear Brethren

Saturday the 19th of May of 2018, under the auspices of the G.A.o.T.U., the Andrew MacBride Lodge n. 237 of Rome welcomes with honour the visit of Brethren of MacBride Lodges of Scotland and will work the 1st degree according to the MacBride Ritual with the permission of the Grand Lodge of Scotland and Regular Grand Lodge of Italy on the occasion of the MacBride Annual Meeting.

The session will be as follows.

- 2:15 PM. Gathering point for Brethren at their hotel in the Roman Forum near the Colosseum. Place: Via San Gregorio at Piazza Arco di Costantino, Rome.
- A bus will take you to the location for the ceremonies near the ancient Roman Via Appia Antica.

- 3:00PM. Arrival at the Domus San Sebastiano for a cocktail welcome.
- 4:00PM. A bus will accompany the brethren's guests and family for a guided tour of the nearby Basilica of Massenzio with tombs from the time of Caesar, the Basilica of San Sebastian with works of the Baroque sculptor Bernini, and catacombs.

The Brethren will meanwhile proceed to the Grotto of Domus San Sebastiano for the Meeting of the Andrew MacBride Lodge n. 237 and the First Degree Ceremony. The ancient Roman setting of the amazing stone grottos will enhance a memorable event of Masonic activities.

- 6:30PM. Return of the bus with guests and family.

- Dinner in the Dining Room of the Domus. After the dinner, farewell remarks. Bus will accompany guests to the initial meeting point at Piazza Arco di Costantino or to the Hotel.
